Acidic and Basic Substances Acids are molecules or ions that act as proton (H⁺) donors. As illustrated in Figure 1, the acid can be a neutral molecule, a cation, or an anion. The species that results from the loss of the H⁺ ion by the Brønsted-Lowry definition, acid is called its conjugate base. which we describe later, is commonly used instead. To get an understanding of how hydronium ions are formed when Arrhenius acids are added to water, let's consider the dissolving of gaseous hydrogen chloride, HCl(g), in water. The solution that forms is called hydrochloric acid. Tue, 17 Apr 2018 05:14:00 GMT aCids, Bases and a -Base r - An Introduction to Chemistry - Introduction to Acids & Bases: ...
